Shine On Students is a campaign for climate action and environmental justice made for student organizations.

All efforts of the Shine On Students program work toward combating Global Climate Change and Energy Poverty in off-grid Africa.